

Meet Pastor David Rogers October 9-10, 2021

David and Andrea Rogers married in 2015. They have two daughters, Alma (2.5 years) and Tanya (9 months).

David is from a small town in South Carolina. When he was 18, he came to faith in Christ. David then went for his undergrad at The Citadel and majored in Electrical Engineering. He went to South Asia through the Journeyman Program via the International Missions Board (IMB) after his graduation. While he was there, he met Andrea, who was also a Journeyman in South Asia.

Andrea grew up in Puebla, Mexico, where her parents served as missionaries for the IMB. She came to faith in Christ at a young age and grew up ministering alongside her parents. Andrea graduated from Liberty University.

Following their two-year term as Journeymen in South Asia, both David and Andrea attended Gateway Seminary of the Southern Baptist Seminary in Mill Valley, CA. They graduated with a Masters of Missiology in 2016. David has 3 classes remaining to finish a Master of Divinity through Gateway Seminary.

David and Andrea served with the IMB as church planting catalysts for four years in South Asia. Their primary goal was to equip and assist local churches in seeing their churches grow in health, see reproducing disciples, and to plant new churches. They were able to see 7 new churches started during their time there with over 350 new believers.

Fun things to know about David:
